BID SHEET INSTRUCTIONS

- ✓ Be sure your name and shipping/mailling address are current and correct. Do not use a post office box number. Include a phone number where you can be reached; shippers require a phone number. Include an email address if you use email. I will add your email address to my email list to notify you of the results.
- ✓ List your items in order of preference if you have a spending limit. A short title/description helps you and me to correctly identify the clock. Your spending limit might be a dollar amount, or a clock number amount (i.e., no more than two clocks).
- ✓ Your bid must be at least the minimum; bid what you are willing to pay for the item, but no more. Remember, most bidders win their clocks for less than their maximum bid.
- ✓ Add bidding instructions if necessary. For example, "I only want this clock if I don't win clock #___".
- ✓ I will fill in the Award column for the clocks you win and the total the amount due and let you know by email or phone (if you do not use email) after the auction closes. You may pay by returning a check or paying by credit card by clicking on the PayPal.me/AntiqueAmericanClock link on the last "Total Due" line.
 - Shipping, if requested on the bid form, will be arranged through several local shipping firms; after I receive payment from you I will take your clock(s) to a shipper and will email you with the shipper's contact information. They will contact you with the shipping cost and shipping options.
- ✓ Please allow 3-4 weeks for your clocks to arrive; I only have a few trusted shippers, and I am not their only customer. Bear in mind that carriers often require packages over $500 to be signed for upon delivery; you may wish to have your clocks sent to a business address if no one will be at your home to sign. Shipping to a business address is often cheaper as well. Alternatively, you can arrange through the shipping firm to have the packages sent to a local outlet (UPS Store, FedEx Office) for pick-up at your convenience.
